

The driving force of customer experience and innovation in the digital era for shopping malls and retails

Part 2: How retails and shopping can transform customer experience and unlock potential opportunities through NFTs and data monetization?

Topic description

COVID-19 has transformed the lives of consumers. People are reconnecting with their deeper values. What do they value? What will it take to serve them digitally? How will shopping malls and retailers adapt?

In Part 2, ISCM is proud to invite Mr. Willy Wong, Partner of Digital & Emerging Technologies Consulting, EY and Mr. Christopher Cheung, the Co-founder and CTO of DTTD, to share their insights, knowledge, and critical findings for this topic during the seminar.
